BURNED THE HOTEL

Feudists Set Fire to Capt Ewen's Home at Jackson.

Was a Total Loss—Two Suspects Arrested and Held Prisoners.

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Jackson, Ky., June 15—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning Joe Redman, watchman at the lumber yard, discovered flames issuing from the roof of Ewen's hotel, situated on the mountain side, three hundred yards from the depot. Heroic work on part of the soldiers and citizens saved possibly the entire south side of the town.

When those in the hotel were notified, the fire was under such headway that the guests who had not arisen had only time to save part of their clothing.

John Clarey, of Louisville, a telegraph operator, sent by the Postal to handle the matter sent to the newspapers during the feud trials, was asleep on the second floor. In the excitement he was not awakened until the flames had shut off escape from the front stairway, and he was almost suffocated while coming out of the rear stairway, and fell unconscious and half dressed on the ground when he finally freed himself from the danger.

The house and fixtures were valued at about $10,000. The property represented the savings of a life time, and Ewen and family are homeless and dependent on the hospitality of the troops.

Gray and Jim Haddicks and Jerry Luntz, workmen at the lumber yard, reported having seen Joe Crawford and Ed Tharpe, wagoners for the Hargis brothers, come across the bridge and return just before the blaze was discovered, and Major Allen ordered these men arrested. They were taken into the military camp by the soldiers and manacled in the guardhouse.

Soon the Hargis people sent attorneys and swore out writs of habeas corpus before Judge Redwine. Major Allen sent the prisoners to the court house under a strong guard.

Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd asked Judge Redwine for time for Major Allen to file a response, but Judge Redwine demanded that it be filed at once.

This was done, and the attorneys argued the case before Judge Redwine. Two of the most interested spectators were County Judge Hargis and Sheriff Ed Callahan. Judge Redwine finally decided to admit the men to bail in $8,000 each. County Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan had bonds drawn up, but after a consideration between them and the lawyers they refused to sign the bonds, and the two men were taken by the soldiers inside their lines.

The purpose of the corporation is to carry on a business of the sale and handling of all sorts of stock and bonds for commission.

GRAND JURY CHARGED.

Jackson, June 15—Judge Redwine charged the grand jury at Jackson, Ky., today to investigate burning of Ewen's hotel.

STATE HEALTH BOARD

Adopts Rules Governing Medical Colleges.

The Fumigation of Railroad Cars Also Considered at Louisville.

Resolutions providing for the rigid enforcement of requirements governing entrance to the different medical colleges of Kentucky were adopted at a meeting of the executive board of the state board of health in Louisville. It was provided, under penalty of being refused recognition, that all reputable institutions shall adhere to the rules.

The resolutions resulted from a conference between the deans of the medical colleges and the members of the state board of health held at the Galt house May 22. At that meeting it was decided that many medical schools in Kentucky have various times admitted students in violation of published requirements and have offered them private inducements to take the study of medicine. The board has the power to compel the adoption of these requirements, but as the representatives of all the schools present at the meeting in May displayed their willingness to co-operate with the state authorities there is no possibility of such measures being resorted to.

The members of the executive board also discussed the question of proper fumigation of railway coaches, including sleeping cars, but no final action was taken. Regulations providing for the more frequent cleaning of cars were drawn and will be presented to the representatives of the various railroads in Kentucky and to the Pullman Palace car company. The matter will be fully discussed by the members of the railroads, but no action will be decided upon until another meeting is held.

PASSENGER SERVICE RESUMED.

BUT FREIGHT BUSINESS IS STILL SUSPENDED ON I. C.

General Agent John T. Donovan this afternoon received a telegram from Illinois Central officials at St. Louis stating that passenger traffic has been resumed into Union station, St. Louis, and all other points west. The freight business, however, is still suspended and it cannot be estimated when it will be resumed.

SUITS FILED TODAY

One Against Attorney J. M. Gilbert, for $195.10.

Suit for $5,000 Brought Against the Cohankus Company.

James Coyle and Sallie Coyle have filed suit against J. M. Gilbert, the attorney, for $195.10 alleged to have been collected by the defendant for the plaintiff and not turned over. The petition stated that the plaintiff was involved in litigation in circuit court over mortgaged property and had deposited $200 with the circuit clerk to insure against a judgment should any be returned against him. It states further that the defendant in this action was at this time, in November 1895, acting as attorney for the plaintiff and in 1896 collected $195.10 from the circuit clerk out of this amount deposited, the remainder being left for costs that had arisen, and has since refused to pay although repeatedly requested to do so.

C. W. Cherry, who was injured at the Cohankus Mfg. Co. on the 8th of June, sues the Cohankus Mfg. Co. for $5,000 damages for the loss of the index finger of the left hand. He alleges that he was cleaning out a machine when the foreman carelessly started the machine by throwing on a belt and caught his hand.

Dennis Lovings and others against Matilda McKnight, for the sale of property for division.

ANOTHER CARRIER

Will be Put on Here September 1st.

Will Make Ten Postmen for Paducah, showing Our Rapid Growth.

ASST. SUPT. ROBERTS HERE

Mr. W. B. Roberts, assistant superintendent of the free delivery service of Washington, arrived in the city Saturday evening and left yesterday evening for Birmingham, Ala. While here he granted an additional carrier to the Paducah postoffice force, to be put on September 1.

This will make ten carriers, an increase of four since 1879, showing the growth of the city, and good management in the postoffice. As a result of an increase in the carriers' force all of the routes will be extended, giving many residents of the suburbs, who are now without free delivery privileges the advantage of them. Mr. Roberts was the guest while in the city of Postmaster F. M. Fisher.

THE SUNDAY PLAYERS

Warranted This Morning—Also Manager J. E. English.

Inquisition at Police Headquarters to Begin Again Today—Girl Disappears.

NEWS OF THE POLICE COURT

WARRANTS PROMPTLY ISSUED

What promises to be an interesting contest began today when warrants were issued on information furnished by Constable Alex Patton, in Justice Barber's court, against President Ben Weille, of the Baseball association, and against Manager J. E. English of the Casino theater, the former for Sunday ball playing and the other for giving a performance of the opera company at Wallace park.

Hon. E. W. Bagby and Attorney Arthur Martin have been employed by the Good Government league to make a fight against these two diversions, but they could not get warrants today because warrants had already been issued and made returnable before Judge Barber tomorrow at 10 o'clock, when the trial will take place probably before a jury.

It is not determined fully yet what steps will be taken by the league. It was stated today by one of the members that it was not the desire or intention of the organization to be oppressive, and that it desired to break up baseball playing and Sunday shows through the managements, and did not desire to prosecute the individual players and performers, which it claims to have the right to do.

They claim that they can take out an injunction and stop ball playing and performances on Sunday if they desire. It will not be determined by the league what will be done until after the trial tomorrow.

It seems that this fight is to be like many similar ones all over the country. A judge in one of the southern states a day or two ago rendered a decision that all those who take a part in prosecuting baseball players must themselves give bond, and that they are liable for damages because of loss of business should they lose the case.

A GIRL DISAPPEARS.

Zola Starrett, a 15 year old girl living on Ashbrook avenue, Mechanicsburg, disappeared Saturday and has not been found. It is believed that she eloped to St. Louis with a young man for the purpose of marrying, but her people have heard nothing from her. The police authorities have been appealed to and telegraphed to St. Louis and one or two other places with a hope of apprehending her. Her mother seems confident that she went away to marry.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

BISHOP HOSS HERE

Large Congregations Visit the Various Churches.

Revival Closes on West Tennessee Street—K. of P. Memorial.

MINOR CHURCH MENTION

Bishop E. E. Hoss, D. D., L. L. D., of the M. E. church, South of Nashville, Tenn., preached two strong sermons at the Broadway Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. A plan for raising a debt on the church, and for buying a pipe organ, was inaugurated at the morning service, and was again introduced in the evening. The amount desired is $25,000. More than $15,000 was subscribed Sunday, and it is intended to raise the balance by a private canvass. The plan adopted provides for the assuming of a certain amount of the debt by individual members of the church to be paid in monthly installments for a period of five years. The subscriptions range from $25 to 50 cents per month.

The memorial services of the Knights of Pythias yesterday were very impressive, and were participated in by about 24 of the Sir Knights from Metropolis. The Cowling with the visitors arrived about 10 o'clock and the delegation was met at the wharf and escorted to the lodge rooms. Rev. G. W. Perryman preached a sermon to them at 11 o'clock and in the afternoon the memorial services with decoration of graves, took place at Oak Grove cemetery. The ritualistic work only was used, no address being made. A large crowd was out to witness the ceremonies.

A large crowd attended the tent meeting at 1700 Tennessee street conducted by Rev. T. B. Owen and Rev. W. C. Sellars, Sunday. Mr. Owen preached morning and evening, and Mr. Sellars in the afternoon.

The meeting closed last night. There were 33 additions to Little's chapel, in Littleville, as a result of the revival.

A meeting will be held this afternoon at the office of Mr. Sam Hubbard in the Farmer warehouse on Broadway to arrange for the big singing and barbecue to be given July 4 in Arcadi by Rev. Cap Owen and other good Methodists. It is expected to make it one of the biggest things of its kind ever given in this section.

Rev. George Bachman, who was to have occupied the pulpit of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church here yesterday, telegraphed the congregation Saturday night that he could not come on account of the illness of his daughter at Nashville.

Children's day services were held in the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening. An interesting program, in which a number of the pupils of the Sunday school acquitted themselves creditably, was rendered.

Rev. R. L. Cole, of Texarkans, preached Sunday morning and evening at the Second Baptist church to good congregations. The revival service at this church will continue through this week.

Rev. G. W. Perryman left at noon for Winchester, Ky., to attend the general association of Kentucky Baptists. He will be gone until Saturday and will visit the libraries in Cincinnati in his absence.

Rev. Mr. Atchisson, of Indiana, preached for the last time Sunday night at the Mechanicsburg M. E. church, after conducting a successful revival.

There were eleven additions to the First Baptist church Sunday night.

REPORTED ROBBERY.

Saturday night it was reported at police headquarters that a small boy who was sent to a store with a half a dollar was held up by a negro who snatched the money. The police have been unable to learn the name of the boy or of the negro who stole the money.

NEWS FROM OTHER PLACES

Chatanooga, Tenn., June 15—A telephone message received by the Times from Lafayette, Ga., gave the details of a sensational suicide which occurred on the Central of Georgia passenger train from Rome near that place. The victim was Joseph M. Crane, who is said to live at Rossville, Ga. Crane used a stick of dynamite in accomplishing self-destruction. He went into the toilet room in the day coach and there the explosion occurred. The shock mangled his body in a frightful manner and did considerable damage to the rear end of the coach. Mr. Yates has gone to Kentucky to secure a requisition.

ILLINOIS TOWN WITHOUT OFFICERS.

Carbondale, Ill., June 15—Cobden, Ill., is without a mayor or city council. Mayor A. J. Hardin and three Aldermen, constituting a quorum of the council, have resigned because the city was in debt and no way seemed clear to secure money with which to liquidate. Last spring Cobden voted out saloons and elected a mayor and three aldermen who favored the raising of revenue by saloon licenses. On assuming office the city was found to be in debt, and the indebtedness was increased.

BAPTIZE BY MACHINERY.

Owingsville, Ky., June 15—The congregation of a church on Foolem Fork, Rowan county, is having a heated controversy with its pastor over a machine the latter uses for immersing converts. The apparatus is rigged up at a place on a river bank. A miniature bed is placed on it, the candidate takes a recumbent position, a spring is touched, and the machine glides under the water, and another spring returns it to the bank.

ANOTHER CHANCE.

METROPOLIS PAPER THINKS C. & E. I. MAY BUILD THERE.

Since the C. and E. I. has been absorbed by the Rock Island system certain things have been transpiring to indicate a possibility of this road being extended to this city after all, says the Metropolis Herald.

A representative of this great system which now controls 14,000 miles of railroad has been in Metropolis twice recently talking with some of our heaviest shippers as to whether another road might get some of the business out of this city.

In addition to this surveyors are reported as working this side of Joppla and near the Tucker place which means something. It is to be hoped that Metropolis may be able to secure one of the new roads now built or building in this county and it is but reasonable to suppose that she will do so.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

TRAGIC DEATH OF EVANSVILLE
MAN WHO HAS RELATIVES HERE.

Miss Mary Lee Clarke was called to Evansville yesterday morning by the sad news that her uncle, Mr. D. A. Nisbet, had committed suicide by shooting himself. The deceased married Miss Mary Bransford, of Owensboro, Ky., who died several years ago, and Miss Clarke, a niece of Mrs. Nisbet, had made her home with them from childhood until recently, when she came here to reside. An Evansville dispatch says of the death of Mr. Nisbet:

"David Nisbet committed suicide near here at 5 o'clock this afternoon by shooting himself in the temple. He returned from New York last night, where he intended to sail for Europe, and was despondent. Until recently Nisbet was at the head of a large wholesale dry goods firm here and president of a packet company. His brother-in-law, C. J. Grammer, is traffic manager of the Lake Shore railroad. Reverses in fortune are supposed to have caused Nisbet's act."

"Mr. Nisbet was born in Madisonville, Ky., September 23, 1853. His full name was David Alexander and was the oldest child of W. F. Nisbet, formerly of Mackey, Nisbet & Co. The family moved to Evansville in 1862 and the deceased lived there until a little over a year ago.

"He leaves five brothers and five sisters as follows: Samuel B. Edward A., Robert K., Frank W., of Madisonville, Ky., and A. G. of Chicago; Mrs. G. J. Grammer, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Tarascon, of Ridgeway, near Nashville, Tenn.; and Mrs. Holman of Madisonville, Ky."

It was also recommended that all legacies and gifts designated for a particular institution shall go to the institution, but shall be credited on the $1,000,000, and all gifts without designation shall be divided among the educational institutions of the synod according to the best management of the synod. The report was adopted.

SERVIA'S KING.

SKETCH OF THE NEW RULER
WHO IS DISSIPATED.

Geneva June 15—The new king of Serbia, Peter, received his early education in Belgrade during the reign of his father, being 13 years old when the family was expelled from Serbian soil. Later he went to school in Pesth and Temesvar, and besides repeated visits to Russia, spent several years at the small court of Prince Nicholas of Montenegro at Cetinje. While there he became the suitor of the latter's daughter, Princess Zorka, and married her in 1883. She died seven years later. The issue of this marriage resulted in three children, a daughter of 19 and two sons, aged respectively 15 and 13. Since 1891 Prince Peter has been residing in Geneva.

Because of his dissipated and spendthrift habits Prince Peter quarreled with his father-in-law of Montenegro and also lost the good graces of Alexander III. of Russia, from whom he received large gifts of money on several occasions. Since the accession of the present czar, however, there has been a sort of reconciliation with St. Petersburg, and the finances of Prince Peter were put and kept on a sound basis, but he has been notoriously poor. It is said that Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria assisted materially in this financial rehabilitation. Since 1891 Prince Peter, never wealthy, has nevertheless been living in modest comfort at Geneva.

His younger brother, Arsenius, served for a number of years as an officer in the Russian guards and married since his retirement, Princess Demidoff de San Defato, a very wealthy Russian lady, with whom he is living in Paris.

HOT-WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

CABINET RESIGNS.

THE WHOLE BUSINESS QUITS

Rome, June 15—Premier Zanardelli formally announced in the chamber of deputies that the cabinet had resigned. Sig. Zanardelli said the cabinet had presented its resignation to King Victor Emmanuel, and that the latter had reserved his decision. The minister will temporarily continue the discharge of current affairs.

The premier then asked the chamber to adjourn in order to permit a consideration of the situation, and the session was adjourned subject to the call of the president of the house.

TRACKS ARE FLOODED

Illinois Central Has Twenty Miles Under Water.

A New Schedule for the Cairo Extension Is Now Being Arranged.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS HERE

The Illinois Central railroad has twenty miles of its tracks between Carbondale, Ill., and Cape Girardeau, Mo., submerged and abandoned for traffic. The crest of the water has not reached the section contiguous to the river and the worst is yet to come. At Grand Tower the city is already partially submerged, the dike which partially protects the city having broken. The embankment was washed from beneath the track at McClure and the track is under water from Aldridge to Reynoldsville.

Rich, fertile fields along the Illinois Central track which have never been known to overflow are under water. The condition in all parts of the country in that locality is worse than during any previous high water. The greater part of Sand Ridge, Grand Tower, Fountain Bluff and Degonia and a part of Pomona townships are inundated, and as there are about thirty-six square miles to a township, there are probably 110 square miles of Jackson county's most fertile farm lands flooded, or about 70,000 acres of growing crops totally destroyed in this county. Some stock has been lost, though most of the cattle and horses have been taken to the hills, where the farmers sought safety on the higher ground.

The Illinois Central railroad is arranging its schedule for the New Paducah and Cairo line. They will handle their St. Louis and Paducah business by way of Cairo, and probably their St. Louis and Louisville business, says a Cairo dispatch. The present plan is to have the train leaving Louisville at 4 p. m. carry a St. Louis sleeper, which will arrive here from Paducah over the new line at 9:30 o'clock. This sleeper will go forward to St. Louis at 1 a. m. and Cairo passengers can enter it upon its arrival here. It will be a great boon to travelers bound for St. Louis.

Trainmaster J. F. Sheridan of the Louisville division of the I. C. has just returned to the city after a tour of inspection of his division.

Mr. R. S. Barriek, yardmaster for the local I. C., has recovered after a several days' illness and will return to work today or tomorrow.

Superintendent A. Philbrick of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today on business.

Mr. H. R. Dill of the I. C. at Evansville is in the city today.

GOOD MAN GONE.

NOTHING HEARD FROM HIM AND HE PROBABLY SKIPPED.

William J. Hays, who has been a citizen of Carlisle county for years, has disappeared and no one knows whether he has gone, says the Carlisle County News. He left home last Friday and nothing has been seen or heard from him since, although a thorough search has been made for him. A short time ago he sold his crop of tobacco, receiving therefor a check for $180. This occurred a day or so before he left home. On last Sunday Mr. Hays' son-in-law, George Hogancamp, received by express two express money orders for $5 each, which were issued at Cairo. A note with them instructed Mr. Hogancamp to keep one of the orders himself and to give the other one to Mr. Jennings, to whom the writer was indebted. Mr. Hays owed both the gentlemen the amounts named, and it is inferred that the money came from him.

CORN IN LATE

IT WILL BE TWO WEEKS OR LONGER BEFORE IT ARRIVES.

Gardeners state that it will be at least two weeks before roasting ears are ready for the market in this section, and may be as late as July 4. On account of cold weather this spring the corn has been set back, and for this reason will not be on the market as early as usual.

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.

SAW TWELVE INNINGS

A Hotly Contested Game at Wallace Park Yesterday.

Paducah and Hopkinsville Fought Until Hoptown Found Another Run—Several Costly Errors.

NOTES OF THE GAMES

Hopkinsville defeated Paducah yesterday afternoon in a hard fought battle of twelve innings at the Wallace park grounds in the presence of 2,000 spectators by a score of 8 to 7. It was a pretty game, and the Paducah boys showed up well despite the fact that Murray and Sexton, two of their best men, were crippled and out of the game, and several costly errors were made. Paducah got fourteen hits off Reed and Hopkinsville thirteen off Hedges, while Paducah had eight errors to her credit as against five for Hopkinsville.

Becker made several costly errors, as did Girard in center, but both are good ball players, and everybody understands even the best players have their off days. Several times during the latter part of the game there was a chance for one man to win the game for his side, but they failed at the critical moment. Once a single from Hedges would have brought in a score and ended the game in favor of Paducah, and once also for street, the Hopkinsville catcher. The batteries did splendid work, and the game was devoid of wrangling. Powers, of Cairo, gave satisfaction to everybody—and then everybody likes the Hopkinsville boys, for they are all gentlemen and good ball players.

The game by innings was:

FIRST INNING.

Paducah: Wilson, the new left fielder, fanned; Sweeney went out on fly to right. Edmunds went to first on slow grounder to short. Le Compte went out on a grounder to second baseman.

Hopkinsville: Street sent up a sky rocket which Girard muffed. Eggleston went out at first on slow grounder to short, who threw him out at first, and Bassett and Morris struck out.

SECOND INNING.

Paducah: Simcox got a pass to first. Becker struck out. Perry hit safe to center. Girard singled to right field, scoring Simcox and made second on wild throw to third base. Hedges hit safe over third baseman's head, scoring Perry and Girard. Wilson fanned. Sweeney struck out. Three runs.

Hopkinsville: Watts went out in easy roller to pitcher. Miller hit past third baseman and made first. Farris hit to Hedges who failed to force Miller out. Lynsby hit to third baseman who forced Farris out at second. Reed hit to deep center, who muffed, letting in two runs. Street hit safe to third baseman, scoring Reed. Eggleston was at the bat when Street died trying to steal the second sack. Three runs.

THIRD INNING.

Paducah: Edmunds struck out. Le Compte went out on a pop to first baseman. Simcox rapped to left field and made two bags. Becker went out on grass cutter to first. No runs.

Hopkinsville: Eggleston fanned; Bassett had three punctures in his bat also; Morris followed suit. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Paducah: Perry struck out. Girard hit safe to left; Hedges hit to third and died on first. Wilson struck three times and reached first on passed ball, stealing second. Sweeney walked. Edmunds hit to second base, forcing side out with bases full.

Hopkinsville: Watts struck three times and reached first on passed ball. Miller knocked fly which Perry caught catching Watts off first base and making double play. Farris hit safe to left. Lynsby fanned.

FIFTH INNING.

Paducah: Le Compte went out from short to first. Simcox rolled a hot grounder which third baseman fumbled, reaching first. Becker flied out to second. Perry struck out.

Hopkinsville: Reed hit to third baseman and went to second on fumble and wild throw. Street went out on liner to Becker. Eggleston hit to left field and scored Reed. Bassett went out on batted ball. Morris went out on slow grounder to second baseman. One run.

SIXTH INNING.

Paducah: Girard went out from short to first. Hedges followed suit. Wilson walked. Sweeney was using the stick when Wilson died on second, retiring the side. No runs.

Hopkinsville: Watts raised an easy fly which was smothered by Le Compte. Miller couldn't find it. Farris rapped a hot grass cutter past third base and went to third on Lynsby's hit to right. Reed fanned. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.

Paducah: Sweeney rapped to short and reached first because baseman's foot was not on base. Sweeney stole second and went to third on passed ball. Becker struck out. Le Compte hit safe to left, scoring Sweeney and tying the runs. Simcox hit to left, which was copped out, retiring side by double play to first shutting off Le Compte.

Hopkinsville: Street went out on batted ball, which hit him. Eggleston made a safe hit and went to third on left fielder's error. Bassett went out on easy grounder to pitcher. Morris hit safe to center scoring Eggleston. Watts struck out.

EIGHTH INNING.

Paducah: Becker struck out. Perry flied out to center field. Girard hit safe to third. Hedges hit safe to left. Wilson hit safe to right field, Girard scoring. Sweeney retired the side by grounder to short. One run.

Hopkinsville: Miller rapped a two bagger to center. Farris flied out to left. Miller stole third and scored on third baseman's error. Lynsby hit safe to left and made three bags on error. Reed went out on fly to right field. Street went out on fly to Le Compte. One run.

NINTH INNING.

Paducah: Edmunds hit safe to center and stole second. Le Compte hit to third base and Edmunds was caught between bases and put out. Le Compte going to second. Simcox saved the game by a drive to right, scoring Le Compte and going to second. Becker hit to short and reached first on a fumble. Perry went out on grounder to pitcher. Girard fanned. One run.

Hopkinsville: Eggleston hit safe to center; Bassett went out on drive to center. Morris went out on fly to center also. Watts went out on pop fly to second baseman. No runs.

TENTH INNING.

Paducah: Hedges hit to short and went to second on first baseman's error. Clifford hit to short reaching first on fielder's choice and Hedges went to third. Sweeney went out on fly and Wilson scored for Hedges. Edmunds went out on batted ball from catcher to first. Le Compte went out on fly to left. One run.

Hopkinsville: Miller hit safe to center and stole second. Farris hit safe to left going to second scoring Miller. Lynsby went out on easy grounder to Simcox. Reed struck out. Street went out on batted ball, which hit him. One run.

ELEVENTH INNING.

Paducah: Simcox flied out to left field. Becker hit safe to left. Perry hit two bagger to right, advancing Becker to third. Girard struck out. Hedges flied out to short stop.

Hopkinsville: Eggleston went out on fly to Girard in center. Bassett struck out. Morris went to first on grounder to second. Watts went out on foul to Perry.

TWELFTH INNING.

Paducah: Clifford knocked a two bagger to left field. Sweeney flied out to center fielder. Edmunds went out on fly, Clifford being caught of second in a double play.

Hopkinsville: Miller hit safe for one base to left field and stole second. Farris hit safe to left and scored Miller, winning the game.

AMATEUR GAMES.

The Coco Colas defeated the Pepsols at Wallace park Sunday morning by a score of 16 to 5 but on account of a "squabble" in the seventh inning the game was declared forfeited in favor of the Coco Colas by a score of 9 to 0. This is one game which will probably not go up for contest. These teams are composed of clerks and young professional men and several good players are among the members of the team.

The Pepsols and Coco Colas will meet again Sunday morning.

The Challenge league and the St. Mary's academy club, amateur boys nines, played a match game Saturday afternoon resulting in a score of 7 to 5 in favor of St. Mary's academy.

The Shamrocks and Challenge league played a match game of ball Saturday and the Shamrocks won by a score of 7 to 5.

The Y. M. C. A. team defeated the Alden Knitting Mills team by a score of 16 to 6 Saturday afternoon.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, each or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain, place, but may be held next Sunday. It is reported some of the managers are in favor of organizing a league composed of Paducah, Cairo, Jackson and Clarksville. At present if the league makes anything over expenses it will be eaten up by sending the clubs to New Decatur, Ala., which is over 200 miles away.

Edmonds made a hit at second base yesterday. He seems to be a good man at the stick and fields excellently. Edmonds will remain on second base and Sexton will play third. This will make Paducah have the fastest infield in the league, Le Compte, Sexton, Edmonds and Simcox.

A game without kicking is something everybody here likes to see, and they had it yesterday. The Hopkinsville boys are the most genteel, handsomest lot of ball players seen here this season, and if we are to lose, there is no one we had rather have get the credit than these boys.

Street, the Hopkinsville catcher, is an Adonis, and is one of the best catchers in the league. He can throw as straight as a gun can shoot, and is one of the handsomest and most perfect athletes ever seen on the diamond. It is reported he will soon be wearing a Paducah uniform.

Hopkinsville had two men out of the game yesterday on account of their parents not allowing them to play Sunday baseball. They are Hadden and Chatham, the former third base and the latter first base. Both men will be in the game this afternoon, however.

Powers, of Cairo, who umpired yesterday's game, gave satisfaction in every respect, neither team having occasion to "kick" on any decision. If he umpires at home like he did here yesterday Paducah will "stay with him."

Last evening Becker, the third baseman who made so many errors yesterday, and Sweeney the right fielder, were let out. Sweeney had been with the team since it was organized, and while he used good head work he is too clumsy for a ball player.

Paducah was crippled yesterday in left field, Murray having a sprained back and the regular center fielder having resigned. New fielders will be secured for right and center field, to succeed Fuller and Sweeney.

Edwards will pitch this afternoon for Hopkinsville and Street will backstop. Girard will pitch for Paducah and Perry or Clifford will go behind the bat.

Paducah fans should not knock their home men when they make errors. Every good baller has his tough luck and it is much more encouraging to say "Don't mind that, old boy," than to jeer him.

Clifford played in left field during the latter part of yesterday's game, and did some work with the stick that saved Paducah from defeat earlier in the game.

The crowds out at the game yesterday, 400 being ladies, and nearly 2,000 paid admissions, shows how well people here like baseball.

A lot of Cairo sports were here rooting for Hopkinsville, but they had better save their wind. They will need it when Cairo comes.

Le Compte continues to hold his own as one of the star players of the league. His work at short cannot be surpassed.

Too many kids are allowed inside the railing. They ought to be kept where they cannot get hurt. Perry caught a good game and made several good stops.

EXCURSION LEAVES.

SEVERAL PEOPLE WENT OUT ON IT TODAY.

This morning a mixed excursion to Memphis was run out of Paducah and the majority of the excursionists were colored. A few white persons left in the white coach, and among them were: Mr. Walker Wilkins, who has gone to Little Rock, Ark., to locate; Will Sweeney, who has gone to New Decatur, Ala., to locate; George Brown, Thomas Wheelers, Mrs. M. A. Byrd.

WILL PAY SOON.

SO SAYS CAPT. PERCY HAILEY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Chairman C. W. Morrison of the Democratic county committee today received a letter from Capt. Percy Hailey, secretary of the Democratic state executive committee, stating that the money due the election officers of McCracken county would be forwarded as soon as the committee meets again, which is expected to be soon.

FREE TRIPS TO ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR. ALL EXPENSES OF THE 120 MOST POPULAR SCHOOL TEACHERS IN THE STATE PAID.

KENTUCKY BUILDING WORLD'S FAIR

member of faculty of academy, college or university, medical, dental or theological institution, protestant or catholic denominational school, is eligible to election. Members of the Educational Exhibit Committee alone excepted.

Names of all school children voting to be enrolled in the Kentucky Building at the Exposition. Kentucky will have an educational exhibit occupying 2,000 square feet of space in the palace of Education. The Exposition is to be the greatest international event in the world's history. The 120 teachers chosen will be lucky indeed in being tendered this trip to the Fair. Every county elects its own most popular educator. The county outside of Jefferson casting the largest number of votes will be allowed to send two teachers—the most popular and the second most popular.

THE VOTES WILL BE TEN CENTS EACH, TEN CONSTITUTING A BALLOT.

At ten cents each every school child in the State will be able to cast at least one vote for his or her favorite teacher. But the voting will not be confined to school children.

PARENTS OF PUPILS OR ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS MAY VOTE. The purpose of the Association being to elect the most popular school teacher in each county, as so considered by the public generally, as well as by the school children. Ballots contain ten spaces, so clubs of ten pupils may be arranged and each giving ten cents be credited with his or her vote. If one person desires to cast ten votes, it may be done by writing his or her name on one of the spaces and remitting one dollar. It is not required that the name of the person voting be given at all. All of the spaces for voters' names may be left blank. The Association wants, however, to enroll in the Kentucky Building at St. Louis next year the name of every child who cast one or more votes in the contest. Pupils are asked therefore to sign their names plainly to the ballots.

ALL EXPENSES OF THE TEACHERS WILL BE PAID BY THE ASSOCIATION. This will include railroad transportation from Louisville to St. Louis and return, board at one of the best hotels in the city for six days and admission to the exposition grounds for six days.

THREE PARTIES WILL BE MADE UP FROM THE MOST POPULAR TEACHERS to make the trip more profitable and more enjoyable. Each of these parties will consist of forty (40) teachers. This would make a total of 120 teachers, but as there are only 119 counties in Kentucky, the Association has decided to allow two teachers—the most popular and the second most popular—to go from that county—Jefferson excepted—which casts the greatest number of votes in the contest.

ALL TEACHERS IN THE STATE STAND ON AN EQUAL FOOTING in this contest. The teacher with only twenty pupils may receive more votes than the teacher with five or six times as many enrolled in his or her school, because the voting is not confined to children. The public will be an important factor.

Votes may be cast for any person who taught school during 1902 or is teaching now. This gives the teacher of a five months' school, which closed in November or December, the opportunity to be voted for during the vacation period.

ANY NUMBER OF BALLOTS MAY BE CAST AT ONE TIME. There is no limit. The more dollars sent in for any one teacher the more votes he or she will be credited with.

ONE DOLLAR CASTS TEN VOTES; TWO DOLLARS CASTS TWENTY VOTES; THREE DOLLARS CASTS THIRTY VOTES; FOUR DOLLARS CASTS FORTY VOTES; FIVE DOLLARS CASTS FIFTY VOTES; TEN DOLLARS CASTS A HUNDRED VOTES; ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS CASTS ONE THOUSAND VOTES.

All of the money received in this contest, over and above that used in defraying expenses of the 120 most popular teachers of the State on their trips to the World's Fair, will go for the erection of a Kentucky Building at the exposition; so every voter in this contest may have the additional satisfaction of knowing that he has aided a worthy cause.

THE STANDING OF THE CONTENTANTS WILL BE PRINTED FREQUENTLY in each county to show his or her friends how the race is being run. Begin voting now for your favorite school teacher. The votes will be counted under the supervision of the Educational Exhibit Committee of the Association. The personnel of this committee is as follows: Prof. H. G. Brownell, Louisville, Chairman; Prof. H. V. McChesney, Frankfort; Prof. R. P. Halleck, Louisville; Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, Louisville; Prof. F. Paul Anderson, Lexington; Dr. Chase Palmer, Danville; President William Dinwiddie, Jackson; Dr. W. G. Frost, Berea; Dr. H. B. Hinton, Louisville; Dr. E. Y. Mallins, Louisville; Dr. Arthur Yates, Georgetown; Superintendent M. A. Cassidy, Lexington; Superintendent S. L. Froge, Frankfort; Prof. C. J. Crabbe, Ashland; Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Owensboro; Prof. T. S. Alley, Bellevue; Prof. C. C. Cherry, Bowling Green; Prof. Enos Spencer, Louisville; Miss Pattie S. Hill, Louisville; Mrs. Emily E. Bracken, Louisville, and Mrs. M. B. Tucker, Louisville. Members of the Educational Committee are not eligible to election in this contest.

REMEMBER EVERY COUNTY ELECTS ITS OWN FAVORITE TEACHER. Competition between counties only applies to the race for the 120th trip, the county outside of Jefferson, casting the largest total number of votes being granted the distinction of sending two teachers. The result will be announced in every paper in the state, and, in addition to this, a congratulatory message will go to the teacher elected in each county. Later the details of the trip will be arranged, each teacher chosen being given the privilege of selecting the month—June, July or August, 1904—in which he or she wants to make the trip.

MISS LEIGH JOINS

THE SUN'S STAFF.

The Sun takes pleasure in announcing the addition of Miss Ora Leigh to its reportorial staff, beginning today.
Miss Leigh and her work are well known to Paducah newspaper readers, and The Sun congratulates itself and its readers on securing her services.

A common sense view is the best to take of everything. The books are full of laws that never were enforced and never will be enforced, and there are evils in every community that never have been and never will be eliminated, however much these laws should be enforced and however much the evils should be eradicated. There are various classes and elements in every community, and what suits one will not always suit the other. To expect to have things all one way is as impossible as the millennium itself. Strife never helps any community, and its effects are often worse than the evil effects of many things complained of.

The Kentucky Republican convention will meet in Louisville July 15 to nominate candidates for state offices.
An election without opposition is an insipid thing and the Democrats will welcome the Republican candidates for the assistance they will give in breaking the monotony of a very one-sided affair.—Fulton Leader.

It is very probable that the Democrats will not be disappointed in getting plenty to "break the monotony," despite the fact that there is and has been enough trouble for them in their own party to satisfy most people who look for trouble.

The most recent outrage in Breath-itt, the burning of valuable property of one of the men who testified against Jett and White, emphasizes the fact that it will take something besides the presence of soldiers to insure peace and protection in the land of feuds. It is becoming a serious question what is to happen when the soldiers are withdrawn and there is no restraint on the lawless, bloodthirsty desperadoes who shoot from behind and burn in the dark.

In addition to the floods in the west there is now danger of a famine on account of the high prices of everything. The supply has grown very meagre on account of the inability to get in with more, and the demand is becoming great every day. The people at a distance, however, have responded liberally and many thousands dollars have been sent to the sufferers.

The latest joke going the rounds of the Democratic press is that Governor Beckham is trying to buy the Kentucky Journal, published at Frankfort. What he could want with it except to stop its publication is hard to conceive of, and it is not believed he wants to do that, because it is trying to beat him.

Hon. Perry Heath's friends are enjoying a joke resulting from an amateur performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at Salt Lake City, in which he played a part and in an auction was sold for eight and a half cents.

This is probably more than Mr. Bryan of Nebraska, could bring, even in his own state.

Louisville Republicans promise to put out the strongest ticket ever offered the voters of that place, and with Democracy in the shape it is at present, and bids fair to remain indefinitely if not perpetually, success is assured.

Even admitting that the King of Servia was not all that he should have been, he seems to have been good enough for his people, if the assasssins, whose bloody work has been indorsed by the people, are a fair sample.

THROWN FROM BUGGY

Mrs. Robert Dunaway Painfully
Hurt Yesterday.

Horse Became Frightened at Dogs—
Other Accident News.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Dunaway, of St. Johns, were slightly hurt in a runaway on Jefferson street between 13th and 14th Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Mrs. Dunaway's left shoulder was sprained and her head and back painfully bruised. Mr. Dunaway escaped with a few bruises. Mr.
and Mrs. Dunaway were driving home in a buggy after a visit to the city.
At 13th and Jefferson the horse became frightened at some dogs fighting on the street and ran away. The lines broke and Mr. Dunaway jumped out to secure the broken line and stop the horse. Mrs. Dunaway was thrown out, and the horse continued to run.

Mrs. Dunaway was taken to the home of Mr. Dunaway's brother, Mr.
John Dunaway on South Ninth street.
Dr. J. W. Pendley was summoned to attend her. She remained at her brother-in-law's last night but was able to return home this morning. Her injuries were not serious.

The horse turned at 14th street and ran out Broadway. He was stopped near Wallace park, and brought back to the city. Neither the horse or buggy were damaged.

Jack Karnes, the 8 year old son of Contractor William Karnes, fell on a nail this morning from the roof of a play house he was building at his father's home, on North Eighth street, and tore a painful gash in the calf of his right leg. The wound is an inch deep and about six inches long. The boy was putting a roof on his play house when his foot slipped and he fell, his leg striking a rusty nail which was protruding from a plank. Dr. J.
G. Brooks was called and dressed the injury.

Dr. J. E. Woelfle's horse ran away yesterday morning about 10:30 o'clock at the Wallace park baseball grounds while Dr. Woelfle was watching an amateur baseball game and damaged the buggy considerably. The horse became frightened at something and overturned the buggy dragging it quite a distance before it broke loose. The horse escaped injury.

A panic among the horses on Market street was created this morning about 10 o'clock by the water circus parade.
The red wagons and small ponies frightened several of the country teams and six horses were running away at one time. They were all

Striking Hotel Employees Not Succeeding Well.

Help From Other Cities Is Pouring into Chicago.

Chicago, June 15—The second day of the strike of the hotel and restaurant employees in twenty-six of the hotels brought desertions from the ranks of the unions and increased determination in the minds of the hotel owners against what they term the arbitrariness of the striking employes.
Vigorous efforts of strike pickets to interfere with delivery of coal, meats and grocery supplies created some excitement around many of the hotels, but every such effort was balked by business agents of the various unions involved in the attacks, and even the milk wagon drivers, who had declared in favor of the strike, were forced by officials of the National Teamsters' union to obey the general laws of the organization and to refrain from a sympathetic strike. Attempts of the strike leaders to enlist the teamsters, engineers and firemen failed.

As soon as these tactics were made known at the Teamsters' union 100 rival pickets were started through the downtown district to combat the efforts of the strikers and to assure the delivery of hotel supplies. Before the end of the day the cooks and waiters abandoned the hope of support from other unions.

A canvass of the hotels where strikes have occurred shows that most of them are in fair working condition.
Against a total of 2,517 employes who have gone out, the hotels in the aggregate have a working force of 1,752.

Three hundred men have arrived in Chicago from outside cities, sent here by agents of the hotel men, who were sent out several days ago.

Every hotel owner has arranged with correspondent hotels in other cities for all the help that can be spared.

Bartenders who went out yesterday in many instances returned to work today and tore up their union cards.

NEWS OF THE SCHOOLS

Annual Election a Week From Tomorrow Night.

The Annual Examination of Teachers Begins Tomorrow.

The school board will hold its annual caucus a week from tonight and the election of teachers will take place the following night.

It has not yet been decided when the grievance committee will ask for a meeting of the board to hear the report in the recent investigation. The evidence has about all been transscribed, and it is possible the meeting will be held tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the regular annual teachers' examination of the white and colored schools will begin. All applicants for teachers' certificates in all departments of the schools will have to undergo these examinations, which last two days.
Supt. Hatfield and the committee on examinations and course of study will conduct the examinations. The examinations will be held at the high school building.

Prof. F. W. Cheek, who has been superintendent of the public schools of Morganfield, Ky., for the past ten years, is in the city, as an applicant for the superintendency of the Paducah public schools. He has excellent recommendations. Prof. Cheek arrived Sunday from Paris, Tenn., where he has been visiting and is the guest of Rev. J. W. Irion.

THE POPE RESTING WELL.

Rome, June 15—General astonishment was produced here by telegrams which poured in announcing the death of the pope, although not even a rumor of the death of his holiness has been heard.

These dispatches created a momentary sensation and a rush was made for the Vatican to obtain news regarding the pontiff's health. It was found there that there was no change in the condition of the pope. His holiness, though not quite so strong as before, owing to his last attack of hemorrhoids, leads his ordinary life, except that he grants fewer audiences.

CAUGHT IN THE WEST.

LEE DALTON TO BE TRIED IN METROPOLIS TODAY.

Metropolis, June 15—Lee Dalton, wanted for some time here on a charge of seduction, was caught in Redwood, N. D., and brought back this morning, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock will have his trial here.

This afternoon Robert Gray and Mattie A. Fitzgerald, colored, of Paducah, were married by Justice Liggett.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1863 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German syrup.
There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cents size has just been introduced this year.
Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Senator Hoar Dams the Flood.

On the subject of irrigation and the staying of floods Senators Burton and Beveridge indulged in a heated colloquy recently, and at last the venerable senator from Massachusetts felt called upon to administer a bit of senatorial spanking to both of his younger colleagues.

"In one of his statements the Senator from Kansas is correct, in the other he is mistaken," commented the "gentleman from Indiana," by way of opening the conflict.

"I am glad to know I have got one right," said Senator Burton dryly.
"So am I, and surprised," fired back
Mr. Beveridge.

"The Senator is always surprised to find anybody but himself right," returned Mr. Burton, hotly.

Just at this moment Senator Hoar rose in his place, his genial countenance overspread with a beatific smile.
"The honorable gentlemen," said he,
"in the softest possible tones, 'are talking about the impossibility of staying floods, and furnishing the best possible illustration of the truth of it themselves.'—New York Tribune.

Making and Spending Money.

Formerly men were trained to spend money, not to make it; now they are trained to make money, not to spend it. The result of this development is that most of the rich in England now do not know how to spend their wealth intelligently. They do not know good food from bad food, good wine from bad wine, good cigars from bad cigars, and good pictures, statuary or furniture from imitations. Their only standard of value is the price, and so prices have gone up all round. As it is taken for granted by them in their ignorance that the dearest article is the best, they buy it, and the cunning tradesman naturally increases his prices to obtain their custom.—London Truth.

WILL ISSUE WARRANTS—Three farmers' sons got drunk in the Clark's River section yesterday and created some little excitement in that neighborhood, swearing and threatening all who came in contact with them. No arrests were made, but the matter was reported to Magistrate Jesse Young, who will investigate and issue warrants if the names are found out.

Secretary Moody Silenced.
Secretary Moody tried to have fun with President Roosevelt over his failure to kill a bear during his recent hunt in Mississippi. "I may not have killed a bear but I did not mistake a colored woman for a wild turkey," retorted the president. "I can have just as much fun with you as you can have with me," Mr. Roosevelt continued, and he spoke very loud as he told how the secretary while on his recent hunting trip in South Carolina killed a colored woman full of shot, mistaking her for a turkey. The president put a few fine touches on the story and before he had finished it he had the secretary buying a flock of chickens at a fancy price in order to pacify the angry negroes.

House Made of Glass.
Glass houses of a very substantial kind can now be built. Silesian glass-makers are turning out glass bricks for all sorts of building purposes, claiming for them such advantages as variety of shape, free transmission of light, strength, cheapness and general adaptability. When complete diffusion of light is needed, as in factories, conservatories, courtyards, etc., they are specially suitable.

The Mrs. Surratt Warrant.
The warrant which was served on Mrs. Surratt at the time of her arrest for complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, a crime for which she was hanged, has long been in the possession of John L. Smith of Anacostia, near Washington, who kept it as a valuable relic. In a fire at Mr. Smith's home the other day the valuable document was destroyed.

Burglars Took the Hint.
A placard reading, "Will not return until Dec. 3," placed upon the door of a residence in West Philadelphia, was so informing to burglars that when the family did return at the date fixed they found the house ransacked and silverware, jewelry and much clothing missing. The police were notified, but the thieves had left no hints on their part.

Testing Vitality of Bacilli.
A bacteriologic test of specimens of earth taken from the site of Camp Thomas, at Chickamauga, is being made to determine if the typhoid bacilli responsible for the recent outbreak of typhoid fever had retained their vitality since the epidemic during the Spanish-American war.

A Plethora of Luck.
It appears that while hurrying around to church fairs just before election in order to corral the important church-fair vote, Mayor Maybury of Detroit, won in raffish a sofa pillow, sewing machine, buggy and two clocks. A man with such luck as that was bound to be re-elected—Buffalo Express.

Would Buy Abbottsford.
Alexander McDonald of New York, largely interested in the Standard Oil company, is endeavoring to buy Abbottsford, formerly the home of Sir Walter Scott, with the purpose of presenting it to the Scottish people. The place is now owned by Mrs. Maxwell Scott, a distant relative of the poet and novelist.

Novelist in Poor Health.
Private letters from Sorrento bring the information that F. Marion Crawford's health is giving his family much anxiety. The novelist recently had a serious hemorrhage, it is said, that left him in a weak condition. He recuperated rapidly, however, and since his condition has been more satisfactory.

Valuable Hunting Dog.
Sezer Massa's hunting dog Carlo disappeared from home in Shamokin, Pa., the other morning and went into the mountains. He returned in the afternoon with two rabbits, which he deposited at the feet of his master. The dog had broken the necks of the bunnies.

Cornell Club for London.
Cornell's entry of a crew for the Henley regatta has inspired the organization of the Cornell club of London. Seventy-five former students of Cornell university have joined. They are mostly electrical or mechanical engineers employed by Charles T. Yerkes and the new electrical establishments here.

Minaret from Mahdi's Tomb.
On his return from the Sudan the Marquis of Tullibardine brought home a minaret from the tomb of the Mahdi. It has been placed on one of the towers of Blair castle. The minaret, which is made of copper plates riveted together, bears marks of bullets fired at Omdurman.

Unsportsmanlike.
The father of a youth who was killed in a football game is prowling the country with a shotgun looking for members of the opposing team. If this sort of crankism is to be tolerated there is great danger that a noble pastime may fall into disuse.

A Legislative Hustler.
Mr. Mudd of Maryland is regarded as a legislative hustler with good reason. He introduced a bill to carry into effect the president's recommendation that anthracite coal be placed on the free list twenty-four hours before the president's message was read.

Concessions have just been granted to construct and run twenty-seven branch lines of the Swedish railways. The new lines will cover a distance of 250 miles in all, and it means that Sweden will again have occasion to purchase a large quantity of rolling stock.

REMAINS ARRIVE

Mr. Will Thurman Assaulted for Robbery.

One Arrest, But the Accused Was Discharged—Funeral This Afternoon.

The remains of Mr. Will Thurman, brother of Mr. E. D. Thurman of the St. Nicholas hotel, who was sandbagged and killed in Alton, Ill., Saturday a week ago, were brought to the city yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and were this afternoon buried at Oak Grove.

The deceased had been away from the city for several months and had located in Alton permanently. He had gone out to a park in North Alton with two men, George Redman and a companion named Walters, the last persons he was seen with, and after the crime had been discovered suspicion pointed to Redman, who was arrested and subsequently released on lack of evidence in the coroner's trial. Thurman had about $13 when he started out with the men, but only 55 cents was found on him when picked up. The police in Alton are working on the case and it is thought developments will be reported shortly. The deceased leaves one brother, Mr. E. D. Thurman, and four sisters, Mrs. W. R. Jones, Mrs. Geo. Parker, Mrs. Nat Derrington and Mrs. Harvey of the I. C. hotel.

The remains were buried this afternoon, funeral from the residence of Mrs. Parker on South Eighth street.

HOUSE BURNED

NO WATER MAINS COMPELLED FIREMEN TO LOOK HELPLESSLY ON.

The residence of Minnie Brown, on West Court street, near Fountain avenue, burned to the ground yesterday morning about 9:30 and the firemen were unable to do anything on account of not being able to secure water, the mains not extending that far.

The alarm was turned in and the department made a hard run arriving in time to save the house had any water been secured. The fire originated from a defective flue and all the furniture was fortunately saved but the house was a total loss. The building was owned by Mr. E. D. Thurman and no insurance was carried, the loss amounting to about $600.

GRAUSTARK

... By ...

GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"Cannot the loan be extended a few years?" asked Lorry, angry with the ruler in the north, taking the woes of Graustark as much to heart as if they were his own.

"Not one day! Not in London, Paris nor Berlin."

Lorry lay back and allowed Anguish to lead the conversation into other channels. The count remained for half an hour, saying as he left that the princess and his wife had expressed a desire to be remembered to their guests.

"Her royal highness spent the evening with the ministers of finance and war, and her poor head, I doubt not, is racking from the effects of the consultation. These are weighty matters for a girl to have on her hands," solemnly stated the count, pausing for an instant at the door of the apartment.

After he had closed it the Americans looked long and thoughtfully at each other, each feeling a respect for the grim old gentleman that they had never felt for him before.

CHAPTER XIII.

UNDER MOON AND MONASTERY.

FOR two days Lorry lived through intermittent stages of delight and despondency. His recovery from the effects of the blow administered by Dannox was naturally rapid, his strong young constitution coming to the rescue bravely. He saw much of the princess, more of the Countess Dagmar, and made the acquaintance of many lords and ladies for whom he cared but little except when they chose to talk of their girlish ruler. The atmosphere of the castle was laden with a depression that could not be overcome by an assimilated gaiety.

The princess could not hide the trouble that had sprung up in her eyes. Her laugh, her gay conversation, her rare composure and gentle hauteur were powerless to drive away the haunted, worried gleam in those expressive eyes of blue. Lorry had it on his tongue's end a dozen times during the next day or so after the count's narrative to question her about the condition of affairs as they appeared to her.

The Countess Dagmar, when not monopolized by the very progressive or aggressive Anguish, unfolded to Lorry certain pages in the personal history of the princess, and he, of course, encouraged her confidential humor, although there was nothing encouraging in it for him.

Down by the great fountain, while the soldiers were on parade, the fair but volatile countess unfolded to Lorry a story that wrenched his heart so savagely that anger, resentment, helplessness and joy gazed forth and enveloped him in a multitude of emotions that would not disperse.

"She will not mind my telling you, because she considers you the very best of men, Mr. Lorry," said the countess, who had learned her English under the Princess Yefie's tutor.

It seems, according to the very truthful account given by the lady, that the princess had it in her power to save Graustark from disgrace and practical destruction. The Prince of Axlaphin's son, Lorenz, was deeply enamored of her, infatuated by her marvelous beauty and accomplishments. He had persuaded his father to consider a matrimonial alliance with her to be one of great value to Axlaphin. The old prince, therefore, some months before the arrival of the Americans in Graustark sent to the princess a substitute ultimatum, couched in terms so polite and conciliatory that there could be no mistaking his sincerity. He agreed to give Graustark a new lease of life, as it were, by extending the fifteen years or, in other words, to grant the conquered an additional ten years in which to pay off the obligations imposed by the treaty. He furthermore offered a considerable reduction in the rate of interest for the next ten years. But he had a condition attached to this good and gracious proposition—the marriage of Graustark's sovereign. His ambassador set forth the advantages of such an alliance, and departed with a message that the matter should have most serious consideration.

The old prince's proposition was a blow to the princess, who was placed in a trying position. By sacrificing herself she could save her country, but in so doing her life was to be plunged into interminable darkness. She did not love nor did she respect Lorenz, who was not favorably supplied with civilized intelligence.

The proposition was laid before the cabinet and the nobility by the princess herself, who said that she would be guided by any decision they might reach. The counselors to a man refused to sacrifice their girlish ruler, and the people vociferously ratified the resolution. But the princess would not allow them to send an answer to Axlaphin until she could see a way clear to save her people in some other manner. An embassy was sent to the Prince of Dawnsberg. His domain touched Graustark on the south, and he ruled a wild, turbulent class of mountaineers and herdsmen. This embassy sought to secure an indorsement of the loan from Prince Gabriel sufficient to meet the coming crisis. Gabriel, himself smitten by the charms of the princess, at once offered himself in marriage, agreeing to advance, in case she accepted him, 20,000,000 gnyvos at a rather high rate of interest for fifteen years. His love for her was so great that he would pawn the entire principality for an answer that would make him the happiest man on earth. Now, the troubled princess abhorred Gabriel. Of the two, Lorenz was much to be preferred. Gabriel flew into a rage upon the receipt of this rebuff and openly avowed his intention to make her suffer. His infatuation became a mania, and up to the very day on which the countess told the story he persisted in his appeals to the princess. In person he had gone to her to plead his guilt on his knees, groveling at her feet. He went so far as to exclaim madly in the presence of the alarmed but relentless object of his love that he would win her or turn the whole earth into everything unpleasant.

So it was that the Princess of Graustark, erstwhile Miss Guggensloeker, was being dragged through the most unhappy affairs that ever beset a sovereign. Within a month she was to sign away two-thirds of her domain, transforming multitudes of her beloved and loving people into subjects of the hated Axlaphin or to sell herself, body and soul, to a loathsome bidder in the guise of a suitor, and with all this confronting her, she had come to the realization of a truth so sad and distracting that it was breaking her tortured heart. She was in love, but with the royal prince! Of this, however, the countess knew nothing, so Lorry had one great secret to cherish alone.

"Has she chosen the course she will pursue?" asked Lorry as the countess concluded her story. His face was turned away.

"She cannot decide. We have wept together over this dreadful, this horrible thing. You do not know what it means to all of us, Mr. Lorry. We love her, and there is not one in our land who would sacrifice her to save this territory. As for Gabriel, Graustark would kill her before she should sacrifice those northern subjects when by a single act she can save them. You see, the princess has not forgotten that her father brought this war upon the people, and she feels it her duty to pay the penalty of his error, whatever the cost."

"Is there no other to whom she can turn—no other course?" asked Lorry.

"There is none who would assist us, bankrupt as we are. There is a question I want to ask, Mr. Lorry. Please look at me. Do not stare at the fountain all the time. Why have you come to Edelweiss?" She asked the question so boldly that his startled embarrassment was an unspoken confession. He calmed himself and hesitated long before answering, weighing his reply. She sat close beside him, her clear gray eyes reading him like a book.

"I came to see a Miss Guggensloeker," he answered at last.

"For what purpose? There must have been an urgent cause to bring you so far. You are not an American banker?"

"I had intended to ask her to be my wife," he said, knowing that secrecy was useless and seeing a faint hope.

"You did not find Miss Guggensloeker?"

"No; I have not found her."

"And are you going home disappointed, Mr. Lorry, because she is not here?"

"I leave the answer to your tender imagination."

There was a long pause.

"May I ask when you expect to leave Graustark?" she asked somewhat timidly.

"Why do you wish to know?" he asked in turn.

"Because I know how hopeless your quest has been. You have found Miss Guggensloeker, but she is held behind a wall so strong and impregnable that you cannot reach her with the question you came to ask. You have come to that wall, and how you must turn back. I have asked how soon?"

"Not until your princess bids me take up my load and go. You see, my lady, I love to sit beneath the shadow of the wall you describe. It will require a royal edict to compel me to abandon my position."

"You cannot expect the princess to drive you from her country, you who have done so much for her. You must go, Mr. Lorry, without her bidding."

"I must?"

"Yes, for your presence outside that wall may make the imprisonment all the more unendurable for the one your love cannot reach. Do you understand me?"

"Has the one behind the wall instructed you to say this to me?" he asked miserably.

"She has not. I do not know her heart, but I am a woman and have a woman's foresight. If you wish to be kind and good to her, go."

"I cannot!" he exclaimed, his pent feelings bursting forth. "I cannot go!"

"You will not be so selfish and so cruel as to increase the horror of the wreck that is sure to come," she said, drawing back.

"You know, countess, of the life-saving crews who draw from the wrecks of ships lives that were hopelessly lost. There is to be a wreck here. Is there to be a life saver? When the night is darkest, the sea wildest, when hope is gone, is not that the time when rescue is most precious? Tell me, you who know all there is of this approaching disaster."

"I cannot command you to leave Edelweiss. I can only tell you that you will have something to answer for if you stay," said the countess.

"Will you help me if I show to you that I can reach the wreck and save the one who clings to it despairingly?" he asked, smiling, suddenly calm and confident.

"Willingly, for I love the one who is going down in the sea. I have spoken to you seriously, though, and I trust you will not misunderstand me. I like you, and I like Mr. Anguish. You could stay here forever so far as I am concerned."

He thought long and intently over what she had said as he smoked his cigar on the great balcony that night. He saw in one moment the vast chasm between the man and the princess; in the next he laughed at the puny space. Down on the promenade he could see the figures of men and women strolling in the moonlight. To his ears came the occasional laugh of a man, the silvery gurgle of a woman. The royal military band was playing in the stand near the edge of the great circle. There were gaiety, comfort, charm and security about everything that came to his eyes and ears. Where was she? He had seen her in the afternoon and had talked with her, had walked with her. Their conversation had been bright, but of the commonplace kind. She had said nothing to indicate that she remembered the hour spent beside his couch a day or so before; he had uttered none of the words that struggled to rush from his lips—the questions, the pleadings, the vows. Where was she now? Not in that gay crowd below, for he had scanned every figure with the hawk's eye; closeted again, no doubt, with her ministers, wearying her tired brain, her brave heart into fatigue without rest.

Her court still trembled with the excitement of the daring attempt of the abductors and their swift punishment. Functionaries flocked to Edelweiss to inquire after the welfare of the princess, and indignation was at the highest pitch. There were theories innumerable as to the identity of the arch conspirator. Baron Dangloss was at sea completely. He cursed himself and everybody else for the hasty and ill timed execution of the hirings. It was quite evident that the buzzing wonder and intense feeling of the people had for the moment driven out all thought of the coming day of judgment and its bitter atonement for all Graustark. Today the castle was full of the nobility, drawn to its walls by the news that had startled them beyond all expression. The police were at work, the military trembled with rage, the people clamored for the apprehension of the man who had been the instigator of this audacity. The general belief was that some brigand chief from the south had planned the great theft for the purpose of securing a fabulous ransom. Grenfall Lorry had an astonishing theory in his mind, and the more he thought it over the more firmly it was imbedded.

The warm, blue coils from the cigar wafted away into the night, carrying with them a myriad of tangled thoughts—of her, of Axlaphin, of the abductor, of himself, of everything. A light step on the stone floor of the shadowy balcony attracted his attention. He turned his head and saw the Princess Yefie. She was walking slowly toward the balustrade, not aware of his presence. There was no covering for the dark hair, no wrap about the white shoulders. She wore an exquisite gown of white, shimmering with the reflections from the moon that scaled the mountain top. She stood at the balustrade, her hands clasping a bouquet of red roses, her chin lifted, her eyes gazing toward the mountain's crest, the prettiest picture he had ever seen. The strange dizziness of love overpowered him. How long he reveled in the glory of the picture he knew not, for it was as if he looked from a dream. At last he saw her look down upon the roses, lift them slowly and drop them over the rail. They fell to the ground below. He thought he understood—the gift of a prince despised.

They were not twenty feet apart. He advanced to her side, his hat in one hand, his stick—the one that felled the Viennese—trembling in the other.

"I did not know you were here," she exclaimed in half frightened amazement. "I left my ladies inside."

He was standing beside her, looking down into the eyes.

"And I am richer because of your ignorance," he said softly. "I have seen a picture that shall never leave my memory—never! Its beauty enthralled, enraptured. Then I saw the drama of the roses. Ah, your highness, the crown is not always a mask."

Correct Summer Clothing

The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo with a good trip. This boat made an excursion to Cairo Saturday night, returning on Sunday afternoon and leaving Cairo last night again in time to return here and make her regular trip out. Both excursions were liberally patronized.

Dr. G. M. Guiteras, the newly appointed surgeon in charge of the United States marine hospital, has gone to Cairo from Philadelphia with his family. Dr. J. H. Oakley, the former incumbent, left Thursday for Port Townsend, Wash., having been assigned to quarantine duty there.

The Dick Fowler carried about 200 people to and from Cairo yesterday and a most pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The boat left Paducah Saturday night and returned about 1 p. m. Sunday, leaving about 6 on her return and arriving again this morning early.

The Beaver passed down to Joppa yesterday and took the Beaver's tow, leaving for the upper Ohio in the afternoon. She had some trouble here in securing a fireman and was delayed several hours.

The Hook arrived yesterday from Tennessee river with 20,000 ties and will leave today for Cumberland river.

The Cowling ran an excursion to this city yesterday from Metropolis and brought up a large crowd.

The Albany Warren arrived last night from Nashville and will leave on return trip this afternoon.

The Albany passed out of the Tennessee river yesterday with a tow of ties for Cincinnati.

The Joe Fowler departed on time this morning for Evansville.

The Tennessee went into Tennessee river Saturday afternoon.

The Pearce arrived and departed on time today for Golconda.

The Butterff arrived and departed last night for Nashville.

The Avalon will pass up to Cincinnati this afternoon late.

The Barrett has gone on down into the Mississippi again.

The Pavonia arrived from Cumberland river yesterday.

The Victor arrived yesterday from Cumberland river.

The Thomas Parker has gone into Cumberland river.

The Clyde arrived last night from Tennessee river.

The Mary Michael is due from Mississippi river.

PALE ALE AND KY-LO

AGAIN DECLARED NON-INTOXICATING BY THE COURT.

A case of much interest was tried before Circuit Judge R. E. Maiden of Dresden, Tenn., in which W. D. Fraizer, of Martin, Tenn., was charged with selling Laevison's Kyo and Pale Ale, which were claimed to be intoxicating; but after testing these drinks and hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, and the proof showing them to be non-intoxicating, the jury dismissed the case, deciding that it was not a violation of the local option law to sell these beverages.

The decision is of much importance to A. M. Laevison & Co., of this city, and their many customers in this state and Tennessee.

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies; when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE.

Here is an unusually good bargain. Must be sold quick. Five room house, No. 1736 Harrison street, one-half square from Fountain avenue, lot 50x165 feet, good shade, stable, etc. This house is nearly new and must be sold within 60 days. Price $900. S. A. HILL.

Theatrical Notes.

The Great American Water Shows, a tent on boats, arrived last night and is at the wharf. It is the most unique looking showboat ever seen here.

Mr. James A. Young of New York, who is to take the principal male role in the forthcoming production of "Faust" here, is in the city, a guest of the Misses Clark, and will be here for several weeks. Mr. Young when here season before last with "Quo Vadis" made a number of friends, who will be pleased to renew the acquaintance.

Manager Williamson of the Cairo opera house was in the city today, having been up the Illinois Central on a brief trip. Manager Williamson will this week close six weeks of stock at his theater, which he says has proven a great success. He has one of the best stock companies in this section and has been turning people away.

"Bohemian Girl" was presented at Wallace park last night for the last time and a large crowd was out to hear the popular and tuneful opera sung.

The principals were all excellent and the opera was presented without a hitch. Mr. McCumlish has won for himself a reputation of being perhaps the best tenor singer ever heard here. His wife, Miss Glover, is a feature of the show. "Bohemian Girl" will not be presented again unless by special request later in the week, this being the last week of the opera season here. Tonight "Fra Diavolo" will be presented, followed by "The Chimera of Normandy" and "The Grand Duchess." There will be a change of opera every night this week. Miss Oakland, who has been slightly indisposed for the past few days, has recovered and will be seen again tomorrow night in "Mikado," which will follow "Fra Diavolo."

CITY LIGHT PLANT

Only One Applicant for Position of Superintendent.

The Plant Is at Present Shut Down for a Few Days.

There are no applications in for the superintendency of the city electric light plant, but Mr. Keebler, who is now acting as superintendent, has been urged to go in and will place his application this week.

Mr. Wallace, having resigned, leaves the position vacant when the resignation is accepted, and the regular election will probably be held soon. Mr. Keebler is a good man and will probably get the place.

The engines have been stopped for repairs and will be ready for service again Wednesday night. The valves had gotten out of repair and the plant has been shut down until Wednesday.

The smoke consumer put up by Mr. Erve Berry will soon be taken down again, having proven a complete failure, and will result in the loss of several hundred dollars to the inventor. But for the repairs to the plant it would have cost the city considerable time from the plant, which had to be shut down during the putting up and taking down of the stack.

COUNCIL MEETS

REGULAR SESSION TO BE HELD THIS EVENING AT CITY HALL.

The regular meeting of the council will be held this evening and a number of matters will come up for discussion, one of which is the Jefferson street improvement. There has been some hitch in the ordinance and it is hoped to remedy it.

The resignation of Supt. Harry Wallace of the city electric light plant will be presented and his successor probably elected.

OPERATION NECESSARY.

Dr. Boyd came down from Paducah at noon Saturday and with the assistance of Drs. Miller, Helm and Stewart, performed an operation upon Mrs. Will Kraper.—Metropolis Herald.

Crushed Fruit with pure Ice Cream Soda at SOULE'S

When you want accuracy in a picture there is only one sure way to secure it—by a photograph! A drawing made on careful measurements may or may not be accurate; a photograph must be. In the same way when you want an accurate fit in a shoe there is only one sure way to secure it.

Don't trust to luck on a last made by ordinary measurements, but use a last constructed on an "X-ray" photograph.

The "Dorothy" Shoe fits the foot as no other shoe ever can, because in making it I have been guided entirely by "X-ray" photographs of the foot.

This explains the marvelous fit of a "Dorothy Dodd."

Sincerely yours,

Dorothy Dodd.
